FIGHTING AMD

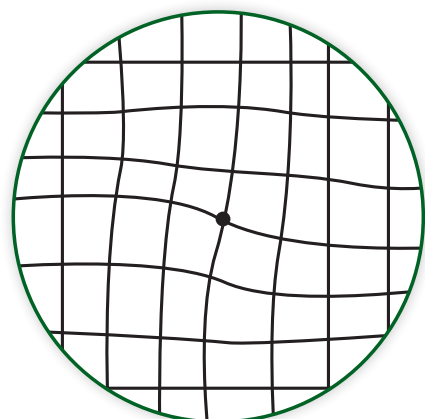

Did you know...

New research shows that early stage AMD can actually affect those as young as 35!

Age-related macular degeneration (AMD) destroys the sharp, central vision you rely on most for essential daily tasks, such as reading and driving. Proper treatment of AMD significantly reduces your chances of losing central vision.

At Ophthalmology LTD, our experienced doctors detect, diagnose, and treat AMD and other eye conditions to ensure that your best vision—and your independence—lasts.

Contact Ophthalmology LTD immediately if you notice any of the following:

Straight lines appearing wavy

Trouble recognizing faces or reading in low light

A blurred spot in the center of your vision

A STATE-OF-THE-ART Cataract Center

Most people age 65 or older have developed cataracts, even if they have not progressed to the point of affecting vision.

If you are concerned about cataracts, call the Ophthalmology LTD. Cataract Center at (605) 336-6294.

CATARACT CORRECTION at Ophthalmology LTD

Nearly everyone will develop a cataract at some point in their life. At the Ophthalmology LTD Cataract Center, we use advanced diagnostic technology to analyze your eye's unique characteristics before recommending the treatment option and innovative replacement lens technology that best suits your needs.

Call (605) 336-6294 today for a cataract consultation with one of our experienced doctors.

Together, our eye surgeons have performed more than 65,000 cataract procedures.
